

New Leaders Council Offers Opportunities to Shape City Club Programming

Are you in your 20's or 30's?
Are you interested in issues that shape our city?
Do you want to meet other young Portlanders who share your passion?

If so, City Club's New Leaders Council (NLC) has opportunities to get involved. Here's the scoop:

What is City Club's New Leaders Council?

NLC offers opportunities for civic involvement and brings together Portland's dynamic young adults for information, interaction—and fun!

How can I get involved?

- Come to a NLC meeting on the first Monday of each month from 5:30-7:00 PM, then join us for drinks afterwards.
- Check us out at an upcoming event. Find upcoming NLC programs on our website or join NLC members at the upcoming brainstorm session (see page 2).
- Help us plan NLC programs: NLC is currently looking to add new members to our ranks who have big ideas, a few hours each month to help plan and execute programming and genuine interest the mission of NLC and City Club. Email amy@pdxcityclub.org for more information.

Which NLC committee would best suit me?

- Events: The Events group creates no-to-low cost interactive events which feature community leaders, experts, elected officials and hot topics. If you like planning and participating in fun, timely and stimulating events, the Events group is for you!
- Leadership: The Leadership group creates opportunities for NLC members to gain valuable leadership skills and connect with leaders in our community. If you are interested in working directly with Portland's movers and shakers, the Leadership group is for you!
- Outreach: The Outreach group builds relationships with prospective NLC members and like-minded organizations. If you have a penchant for making connections, the Outreach group is for you!
